TERPSICHOOREAN CARNIVAL

An Evening in Fairyland

Friday evening, March 8, Professor Northcutt will give a terpsichorean carnival at the Ocala Rifles' Armory. A special stage has been erected for this occasion and a charming program arranged consisting of songs, dances, cake walks and marches. Among the most attractive numbers on the program will be a snap shot from Buffalo Bill's wild west show, an Oriental tea party, a Midsummer Night's Dream, Circle Sam's Reception and Cake Walk to all the Nations, Phenician Dancin' Girls, and Looking Backward, by eight pretty Irish maidens. Fifty children will take part in this ball, and a special program has been arranged for the Ocala House Orchestra, which will furnish the music for the occasion. This entertainment bids fair to surpass all previous efforts in this line given by Professor Northcutt. All those not holding tickets will be charged 50 cents at the door. Children 25 cents. The grand march will begin promptly at 8:30 o'clock.

IT IS ABSOLUTELY FREE

Tydings & Co. will sell you a bottle of

Smith's Chill and Fever Tonic

and if it does not cure you they will return the purchase price. As a general tonic for that tired feeling it is superb. Remember, if it does not cure, you get your money back. Look for the Red Triangle on each package. None other genuine.

FRESH COUNTRY BUTTER

We have made arrangements with a big Georgia dairy to supply us with fresh country creamery butter, which we will keep on hand, in our refrigerator, at 25 cents a pound. Telephone 27. Carmichael Son Co.

YOU CAN REST ASSURED

That there is no better Confectionery made than we are handling, and we do not have to say a word about its delicacy and flavor. We are handling Lowmy's Whiteman's and Wiley's. Fresh every week and guaranteed to be absolutely pure. T. W. TROXLER.

AN OIL SALE

The gushing oil wells around Beaumont, Texas, which could not be tanked or barreled at the time the wells were struck, was run into a lake containing 75,000 acres. Now that the owners of the oil have got around to saving the oil, they find it so saturated with dirt that the oil is worthless and the lake will be set afire and the oil burned up.

SAYS HE WAS TORTURED

"I suffered such pains from corns I could hardly walk," writes H. Robinson, Hillsboro, Ill., "but Bucklen's Arnica Salve completely cured them. Acts like magic on sprains, bruises, cuts, sores, scalds, burns, boils, ulcers. Perfect healer of skin diseases and piles. Cure guaranteed by Garrett & Gerig 25 cents.

OCALANS IN HAVANA

They Are Doing Good Work for Their Country and Also for Themselves

J. O. LaFontasee, of the Havana Post, who was in the city this week, gave a Star man the following information about the Ocala colony in Havana:

Every person who has gone from this city to Havana is doing well and make splendid citizens, get along nicely with both Cubans and Spaniards and are well content, though all look upon Florida as "home."

"There are more people in Havana," said Mr. LaFontasee, "from Ocala than from any other town in the United States, the cities not excepted." J. W. Lancaster is chief bookkeeper for the North American Trust Company, by far the biggest commercial institution in the island, with branches in half a dozen cities and three millions of dollars on deposit. He has over twenty bookkeepers under him and has a magnificent salary.

Neal Weathers is in the employ of the department of posts. He was private secretary to the postmaster, but has received a handsome promotion on his merits.

Hood Hudson has a remunerative position in the treasury office of the government and in addition is planting out a ten acre orange grove.

S. R. Birdsey, Sr., and Sanford Birdsey, his son, are manufacturers' agents and are doing a good business.

Ralph Birdsey is in the engineering department of the government, where he has a good salary and is much liked.

Joe Woodrowe is also in the employ of the engineering department of the government, where he is doing well.

Albert Wright has probably succeeded better than any other member of the colony. He is now one of the foremost lawyers of the island and is highly respected as man and counsel and much liked by the Americans, Spaniards and Cubans, and is hand in glove with the United States government. He is a member of the law firm of Ernest B. Conant and had charge of the prosecution of Neely, the postal defaulter, for the government and prepared all of the testimony in the case.

J. A. Rowell is representing shoe and other houses from this country and is making money.

L. M. Thayer is a manufacturers' agent and drives a good trade. He also manipulates real estate.

J. W. Paine is chief man in the city engineering department and has 600 men under him, whose business it is to keep the city clean and dispose of the garbage. He has reduced the expense of this work over 30 per cent, and has introduced some much needed reform. The garbage is taken out to sea on lighters towed by tugs. He is greatly liked by General Wood and the other officials.

G. C. Stapleton is in business. Mr. LaFontasee could not remember the nature of same, but he is doing well, as he deserves.

John H. Brown, printer, scholar and linguist, formerly of the Star office, is translator and proofreader in the biggest job and book printery on the island, and as evidence of his prosperity we have but to mention that he recently declined, with thanks, an offer of $30 per week to work for the Post.
